

Part 3, The Judgments of the Lamb

Revelation 6 thru 18

Chapter 11

The Second Interlude, Part 2:

The Two Witnesses

Revelation 11

Measuring the Temple

1. According to Revelation 11:1-2, what part of the Temple in heaven was John to measure? What part was left out?
2. What part of the Temple does 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 call your body?
3. What change in the political climate today would have to occur to allow for a third Temple to be built? What is on the Temple mount presently?
4. There will be a temple during the tribulation, and it will play out significantly in the exposure of the true character of the Antichrist. Which three people does the author quote the Bible as speaking about this third Temple?

Two Witnesses and a Second Woe

5. Why do the two witnesses in Revelation 11:3 appear wearing sackcloth?

6. Does God reveal the identity of these two witnesses?

7. The author writes, “Unfortunately, it is too often what we don't know that attracts our attention instead of what we do know.” Rather than who, what is the first reason the author gives for why the witness show up in Jerusalem?

8. How many Temples have there been in Jerusalem? What were they named?

9. Who else in the Old Testament saw two witnesses in Zechariah 4:11-14?

10. The two witnesses will be mocked, cursed, and attacked. But it will not go well for their attackers. What does Revelation 11:5-6 say will happen to them?

11. “When they finish their testimony” what will happen to the two witnesses?

12. People living in the tribulation period will think that they have truly scored a victory. Three-and-a-half days later, they will learn how wrong they are. What happens to the two witnesses?

13. How does God respond to them according to Revelation 11:11-12?

14. What sign in nature will accompany their departure in Revelation 11:13-14? How many will die?

The Seventh Trumpet Sounds

15. What differences can we note between the trumpet call Paul talks about in 1 Corinthians 15:51-52 and this Seventh Trumpet sounding in Revelation 11:15-18?

16. When the seventh trumpet sounds, another worship service will break out in heaven. David records this in Psalm 2:1-3. What leader do people on the earth continue to follow?

17. What is seen in the Temple revealed in Revelation 11:19?
