

Personal Evaluation

How just are you?

1. Have you read God's Law, and do you memorize and meditate on it day and night?
2. When you are dealing with a matter that requires justice, do you find comparable Biblical examples on which to base your decisions?
3. Have you asked God for an understanding heart so you can make wise and just judgments?
4. Do you have a meek spirit so God can guide you in justice and judgment?
5. Do you understand the difference between justice and fairness?
6. Do you cry out to God when required to make a decision based on justice?
