

Part 3, The Judgments of the Lamb

Revelation 6 thru 18

Chapter 10

The Second Interlude, Part One: John Eats the Book

Revelation 10

The Mighty Angel

1. According to Revelation 10:1-3, where is John at and where is this new angel located? What is the size of this angel that the passage seems to indicate?
2. “His appearance also lends to his grandeur.” To what is this angel’s appearance associated? Is the angel divine?
3. What do the angel’s instructions permit John to do or not to do in Revelation 10:3-4?
4. How does the author respond to an obvious question: What are the seven thunders?
5. When will this mystery of God be revealed? To whom will it be revealed? Who originally declared this mystery of God? See Revelation 10:5-7
6. What does the author think the mystery is, “most likely” referring to that is also referenced in Revelation 20?

7. Fill in the blank. "In theological circles, this revealing of a little information at a time is known as _____."

8. What does the "scepter" refer to in Genesis 49:10 and Revelation 5:5?

9. What does Psalm 2:4-6 refer to when it uses the words, "Yet I have set My King on My holy hill of Zion"?

10. What is the royal lineage described in Isaiah 9:6-7?

11. Where does Zechariah 14:4 say that the King will arrive when He returns to establish His kingdom?

12. Where does the New Testament record that Jesus left from? See Acts 1:9-11.

13. Where would you expect to see this same prophecy come true in Revelation 19?

The Bittersweet Scroll

14. What does Revelation 10:8-9 say has a sweet taste but is bitter in the stomach?

15. Along with other prophets who had done the same, what does John's eating of the book symbolize?

16. "R_____ before w_____—is what the author considers the sweet part of the Book of Revelation.

17. What does the author consider to be the bitter part for the Jews and the rest of the world?

18. What does the author ache for his Gentile friends?

19. And what does the author describe as the "bitter pill" too hard to swallow?
